The full text author accepted manuscript of this document is currently still subject to the embargo period imposed by the publisher.

The Open Access team at Cranfield University will upload the full text of the article when the embargo period has passed.

Should you require this article before the embargo period has passed please contact the Open Access team by emailing openaccess@cranfield.ac.uk.
Developing fiber and mineral based composite materials from paper manufacturing by-products

Adu, Cynthia

Springer

http://dx.doi.org/10.1007/978-3-319-57078-5_41

Downloaded from Cranfield Library Services E-Repository