My dear Mother & Dad,

Thank you for your
good wishes for my Birthday.
Yours was the only letter I had. I heard to-day however from Grandma, who apparently had not forgotten the day but my address.

I gather from her letter that she is better and that you are looking well — which is nice to hear.

'Mr Roxie Cox and friends' have had an invitation to attend the 'premier presentation' of a film called 'Dingible'

at the Twoli next Monday.
Mayone & I hope to go.
There are a lot of amish features in the film, I gather.

Christopher keeps well & jolly. His vocabulary is miraculous now and he talks loudly and at length.
He seems unable to talk, walk or play quietly. His energies overflow in noise.
He seems a very big boy
now.

Well, I hope you, Mother, are as well as I am told you look & that Dad is OK. We all send our love to both of you. Your own son Lambert.
