My dearest Mother,

I see that you have had a Tomado in Birmingham! I hope you suffered no damage. It was very windy here at the same time as your Tomado, but nothing like so severe as what you in Birmingham experienced.

Marjorie and I went to see 'Singin' in the Rain' on Monday evening in Town. I borrowed a car and we drove in style and enjoyed ourselves. It was a wonderful film, and the pictures of airships were most impressive. It was a very distinguished audience.

I saw Lord Amherst - the Secretary of State for Air - Sir Eric Gaddes, Handley Page & others.

On Sunday, at lunch time, Christopher complained of his ear and started to cry. He seemed to be in pain so I got a doctor, who said he had a small abscess in his ear. He told us to give Port $\frac{1}{2}$ an Aspirin & put him to bed. We had a prescription made up but never used it as the sleep he had after the Aspirin

seemed to have cured him. The Doctor came next day & said that the Nung had broken & need expect no more trouble, tho'
he wanted to see Posh again on Wednesday to make sure all was well.

I don't think I have any more to tell you. I hope you and Dad are well. Much love from us all to you both,

Your own son

My dearest Mother,

I see that you have had a Tornado in Birmingham! I hope you suffered no damage. It was very windy here at the same time as your Tornado, but nothing like so severe as what you in Birmingham experienced.

Marjorie and I went to see 'Dirigible' on Monday evening in Town. I borrowed a car and we dressed in style and enjoyed ourselves. It was a wonderful film, and the pictures of airships were most impressive. It was a very distinguished audience. I saw Lord Cunliffe - the Secretary of State for Air - Sir Eric Geddes, Handley Page & others.

On Sunday, at lunch time, Christopher complained of his ear and started to cry. He seemed to be in pain so I got a doctor, who said he had a small abscess in his ear. He told us to give Post ½ an aspirin and put him to bed. We had a prescription made up but never used it as the sleep he had after the aspirin seemed to have cured him.
